REVOCATION OF PROHIBITION ORDER

Disability Service Safeguards Act 2018
Section 137

This revocation order is made pursuant to the Disability Service Safeguards Act 2018, section 137 which states that

(1) the Commissioner must revoke by order an interim prohibition order or prohibition order if the Commissioner is satisfied that the interim prohibition order or prohibition order is no longer required to avoid serious risk to;
(a) the life, health, safety or welfare of a person; or
(b) the health, safety, or welfare of the public.

Name of the unregistered disability worker to whom this revocation order applies:	Timothy Clark Blackburn (also known as Tim Clark; Timothy Clark; Timothy Atkinson-Clark; Timothy Peter Clark Blackburn)
Date this revocation order is made:	23 October 2026
Date this revocation order takes effect:	12.01am on day 31 October 2026 s.137(4) A revocation order takes effect on the date specified in the order, being a date after the publication of the order required under subsection (3)
Effect of this Revocation Order: The unregistered disability worker is no longer subject to a prohibition order effective, 12.01am on day 31 October 2026 as the Commissioner is satisfied that the prohibition order is no longer required to avoid a serious risk to— (a) the life, health, safety or welfare of a person; or (b) the health, safety or welfare of the public. This revocation order, lifts the restrictions placed on them by the prohibition order effective from 25 February 2026 which prohibited them from 'providing all disability services in Victoria'.

In this revocation order 'unregistered disability worker' and 'disability service' have the same meaning as in section 3 of the Disability Service Safeguards Act 2018.

This revocation order takes effect on day 31 October 2026.

Section 137(3) of the Disability Service Safeguards Act 2018 requires the Commissioner to, as soon as practicable after making a revocation order,

(a) serve a copy of the order on the unregistered disability worker to whom it applies; and
(b) publish the order in the Government Gazette and on the Internet site of the Commission.

Signed at Melbourne in the State of Victoria

This 23 day of October 2026
